

ARD CAPITAL STUDIOS BERLIN 1999 -The building complements and stabilises the urban fabric of this historic city block on the Spree River. Inside the building, areas for administration, editorial offices, and studio work are arranged around a central editorial hall. A large flight of stairs, connecting bridges, and galleries provide access throughout the hall, creating an atmospheric space for all kinds of presentations.

Photos by Stefan Müller

