

VILLAGGIO OLIMPICO TURIN 2005 - The detached building, constructed to house athletes during the Olympic Games, has local characteristics. The stone base and plaster façade with blinded windows, cantilevered cornice panels, and corner balconies are just some of the features typical of residential buildings in Turino. The floor plan is easily adaptable to later uses.

